

Erin Go Bragh

McCabes Irish Pub is closed for an extended Irish Vacation.

A grand Irish Wake was held on Sunday, September 1st to celebrate the departure of McCabes from the 5th Avenue scene. The last day was filled with merriment, camaraderie, festivities and entertainment featuring some of the musicians you have seen at McCabes over the years. All remaining McCabes memorabilia was given away to patrons in attendance from the stage. Some lucky revelers made off with tee shirts, hats and even some furniture.

BUT TAKE HEART.....

McCabes will be back. Watch this spot for updates. A spiffed up, rejuvenated, rested and more-Irish-than-ever McCabes will re-open in about two years, downtown Naples in a surprise location. In the meantime.....

SLAINTE!!

May the blessings of the Irish be with you until we meet again:

May the road rise to meet you.

May the wind be always at your back.

May the sun shine warm upon your face;

The rain fall soft upon your fields.

And until we meet again,

May God hold you in the palm of his hand
